

Alcohol Related Brain Damage (ARBD)

Alcohol-Related Brain Damage is the preferred term of the Royal College of Psychiatry for a collection of disorders related to long-term alcohol misuse such as: Wernicke's encephalopathy and Korsakoff's syndrome. Our 90 minute course will help you understand the differences between alcoholic hallucinosis and delirium tremens, confabulation from lying and the current best practice to manage ARBD.

6 things you will gain by attending

- Understand the psychosocial & physical effects of prolonged alcohol misuse
- Recognise the signs and symptoms of Wernicke's encephalopathy
- List the common features of Korsakoff's syndrome
- Describe the medical treatments for the; prevention, rehabilitation & maintenance for ARBD conditions
- Explore how psychological therapies can help in the recovery process
- Examine effective compensatory practices that can help people with irreversible dementia.